ILLINOIS INDUSTRIAL ENERGY CONSUMERS' COMMENTS WITH RESPECT TO SCHEDULING PROPOSALS

NOW COMES the Illinois Industrial Energy Consumers who have intervened in Illinois Power Company, Docket No. 00-0461, and pursuant to the Notice of Schedule dated July 13, 2000, offers the following comments with respect to the scheduling proposals.

1. The Illinois Commerce Commission Staff (Staff) has proposed a schedule that would call for an order from the Illinois Commerce Commission (Commission) in the early spring, 2001. The Staff made this proposal taking into account the Commission's declaration that the Post Exceptions Proposed Order should be issued in mid-February, 2001. In addition, Staff counsel asserted at the prehearing conference on July 12, 2000, as much time as possible was needed, given that the Commission had consolidated three separate utility cases, all of which would be litigated in the context of a consolidated proceeding.

2. IIEC is in agreement with the Staff position for the reasons stated above.

3. In addition, IIEC reserves the right to comment on the proposed schedules by Central Illinois Public Service Company / Union Electric Company and Illinois Power Company, after reviewing their comments pertaining to the schedules and related issues, pursuant to the schedule.

Respectfully submitted,

Eric Robertson
